ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the Request for Motion of Continuance, filed by Relief Defendant Darren Lee. Therein Defendant Darren Lee requests an extension of time before trial, currently scheduled for November 2010, although he makes no specific request for a trial date. Defendant relies in part on his pro se status in support of his request for continuance.

The Court conducted a status and scheduling conference in this matter on Thursday June 24, 2010. Via telephone, Mr. Lee participated in the conference, during which the November trial date was selected. Mr. Lee made no statement at that time regarding that date, and the Court finds that at this juncture it would be inappropriate to extend the deadlines in this case. Mr. Lee notes that he is seeking to obtain counsel, and if counsel enters an appearance and discovers that the current deadlines impose insurmountable hardship, counsel may seek an extension of time. Until such time, the Motion of Continuance of Defendant Darren Lee is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 1st day of July, 2010.

DAVID L. RUSSELL
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
