Case No. CJ-2009-1763

ANSWER

Defendant David E. Grose ("Groser"), for his Answer to the Petition filed herein, alleges and states as follows:

1. As to paragraph 1 of Plaintiff's Petition, upon information and belief, these allegations have been the basis for at least one grand jury investigation conducted by the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma. Exercising his rights under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Defendant Grose respectfully declines to answer the allegations of Paragraph 1 of the Petition. As a result of Defendant Grose's invocation of his Fifth Amendment Privilege, the allegations in Paragraph 1 of the Petition should be deemed denied.

2. As to paragraph 2 of Plaintiff's Petition, it contains only conclusions of law for which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Grose denies these allegations.

3. As to paragraphs 3-4 of Plaintiff's Petition, upon information and belief, the subject matter of these paragraphs in the Petition has been the basis for at least one grand jury investigation conducted by the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma. Exercising his rights under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Defendant Grose respectfully declines to answer any of the allegations in these paragraphs of the Petition. As a result of Defendant Grose's invocation of his Fifth Amendment Privilege, the allegations in these paragraphs of the Petition should be deemed denied.

4. Grose admits the allegations of paragraphs 5-13.

5. As to paragraph 14 of Plaintiff's Petition, Grose admits that he is a resident of Oklahoma, that he was hired by Cash in June of 2004, and was the Chief Financial Officer of Quest until September of 2008. As to the remaining allegations in Paragraph 14 of Plaintiff's Petition, upon information and belief, the subject matter of these remaining allegations has been the basis for at least one grand jury investigation conducted by the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma. Exercising his rights under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Defendant Grose respectfully declines to answer the remaining allegations of Paragraph 14 of the Petition. As a result of Defendant Grose's invocation of his Fifth Amendment Privilege, the remaining allegations in Paragraph 14 of the Petition should be deemed denied.

6. As to paragraphs 15-53 of Plaintiff's Petition, upon information and belief, the subject matter of these paragraphs in the Petition has been the basis for at least one grand jury investigation conducted by the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma. Exercising his rights under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, Defendant Grose respectfully declines to answer any of the allegations in these paragraphs of the Petition. As a result of Defendant Grose's invocation of his Fifth Amendment Privilege, the allegations in these paragraphs of the Petition should be deemed denied.
