Subject: CJ-14-4515

Counselors,

The Court has reviewed the Receiver's Report, as well as the Objections thereto and heard argument of counsel. Based upon this review, the Court approves all the recommendations contained in the Receiver's report. The Court denies the Objections' filed by Wayne Doyle, Advance Restaurant Finance and First National Bank of Weatherford. Furthermore, the Court has been advised of a late claim filed by Jim Bradley in the amount of $25,000. The Receiver indicated that Mr. Bradley did not receive proper notice of the of the bar date for filing claims. Therefore, the Court approves this claim for inclusion in a pro rata distribution. The Receiver will be filing a Supplemental Report reflecting this most recent claim.

The Receiver is directed to file a report with the Court within 30 days reflecting the final amount of funds available for distribution after payment of any taxes, Receiver's fees, accountant's fee's and legal fees.

Dear Counselors,

I have reviewed the transcript of the proceedings from the Feb. 29, 2016 hearing, as well as the Receiver's proposed Order and Judgment. The Order and Judgment accurately reflects the Court's ruling and has been signed. Mr. Edinger, should file the Order and provide file-stamped copies to all counsel. The signed Order and Judgment is in my outbox.
