- b. All assets of ABC necessary to accomplish the objectives of the Conservatorship, including, but not limited to, computer hardware, databases, software, ABC Investor and viator files relating to the Policies, accounting and financial records pertaining to premium payments and receipt and distribution of proceeds on the Policies, any deposit of cash, bond or guarantee, filing cabinets, office supplies, the lease to office space at 105 East Robinson Street, Suite 320, Orlando, Florida, and telephone systems;

- c. All premium reserve accounts and bank accounts into which ABC Investor funds or proceeds from the Policies have been deposited; and

2. The Conservator was given the direction and authority to accomplish the following:

- a. To take custody, possession and control of the Conservatorship Assets as they are transferred to the Conservator;
- b. To manage all Conservatorship Assets pending further action by the Court including, but not limited to, the evaluation of the Policies, and to take necessary steps to protect the ABC Investors' interests including, but not limited to, the liquidation or sale of the Policies to institutional buyers and the assessment to ABC Investors of the future premium payments;
- c. Receive and collect any and all sums of money due or owing on the Policies to ABC or its agents;
- d. Seek the return of any cash, bond or guarantee on deposit with any regulatory agency or other entity on behalf of ABC or its agents;
- e. Make such payments and disbursements as may be necessary and advisable for the preservation of the Conservatorship Assets and as may be necessary and advisable in discharging his duties as Conservator including, but not limited to, the timely payment of all premiums for Policies that have not yet matured;
- f. Monitor the viators of the Policies by tracking the location of the viators and periodically checking the health of the viators;
- g. Receive notice of the death of viators, file death claims on the viators, and collect the proceeds paid on the Policies as such mature;

- h. Disburse to each ABC Investor his proportionate share of the proceeds, after deducting premiums advanced, paid in matured Policies;
- i. Establish open communication with ABC Investors with proper disclosure of available options and consequences including, but not limited to, notice to ABC Investors of the Conservatorship Order within 30 days;
- j. Retain and employ attorneys, accountants, computer consultants and other persons as may be advisable or necessary to the exercise of the duties of the Conservator, and compensate such persons, subject to application and approval by the Court;
- k. Open and inspect any and all mail and/or deliveries related to the existence, location, identity and/or collection, preservation, maintenance or operation of Conservatorship Assets, and to notify any insurance company or third party administrator and the United States Postal Service to effect the forward delivery of any mail related to the Conservatorship Assets to a mail depository under the control of the Conservator;
- l. Institute, prosecute, defend, intervene in or become a party to such actions or proceedings in any state court, federal court or United States Bankruptcy Court as may in the Conservator's opinion be necessary or proper for the protection, maintenance and preservation of Conservatorship Assets, or the carrying out of the Conservatorship Order; and
- m. Exercise those powers necessary to implement the Conservator's conclusions with regard to the disposition of the Conservatorship pursuant to the orders and directives of the Court.

3. On June 2, 2006, the Court granted Conservator's application to employ Blasingame as local counsel in Georgia and approved its hourly rates.

4. Since its employment as counsel, Blasingame has performed certain tasks, which include representation in a matter in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, styled Texas Life Insurance Company v. Frank Hammond English and HTM Conservator, LLC, Case No. 3:05-CV-112-CAR.

5. Conservator seeks to compensate Blasingame at its regular hourly rates, plus Blasingame's actual and necessary expenses for work performed for the period of November 19, 2006 through December 12, 2006.

6. Conservator did not pay Blasingame a retainer. While Blasingame would normally have requested a retainer, Blasingame agreed to accept employment on the basis that it would be provided interim compensation.

7. The standards for evaluating this application are set forth in State, ex rel. Burk v. City of Oklahoma City, 1979 OK 115, 598 P.2d 659; and Oliver's Sports Center, Inc. v. National Standard Ins. Co., 1980 OK 120, 615 P.2d 291. Those standards include the following:

- a. Time and Labor Required. Blasingame has devoted substantial time and effort in its representation of Conservator and seeks compensation for services which are detailed in the statement attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
- b. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Involved. Blasingame has provided representation of the Conservator on numerous issues and tasks relating to the preservation of assets, pending litigation, potential litigation and applications to the Court for approval of Conservator's actions.
- c. Skill Requisite to Perform Services Properly. The Court previously approved the retention of Blasingame as local counsel in Georgia because of the firm's experience and qualifications to render the services required by the Conservator.

- d. Preclusion of Other Employment. Blasingame has expended the time set forth in this application in representation of Conservator to the preclusion of other employment.
- e. Fees Customarily Charged. Blasingame has billed for its time on an hourly basis which is well within the professional rates customarily charged in its jurisdiction and which were previously approved by the Court on May 5, 2006.
- f. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. The fees charged by Blasingame are well within the professional rates customarily charged in that jurisdiction. The attorney's fees are neither fixed nor contingent, but are based upon the reasonableness of such fees in relation to the work performed as a result of the representation.
- g. Experience, Reputation and Ability of the Applicant. The Court previously approved the retention of Blasingame as local counsel in Georgia because of the firm's experience and qualifications to render the services required by the Conservator.

8. All professional services for which allowance of compensation is requested were performed by Blasingame for and on behalf of the Conservator.

9. This Application covers allowance of compensation for services performed from November 19, 2006 through December 12, 2006. During the period covered by this Application, Blasingame expended a total of .90 hours for services rendered on behalf of Conservator at hourly rates ranging from $150.00 to $225.00 per hour for a total fee of $150.00, and has accrued $.16 in expenses. Exhibit "A" details the dates services were rendered, hours spent rendering the services and descriptions of the services rendered.
