Re: ODS File No. 10-007

Ms. Hall:

I write on behalf of Vernon R. Twyman, Jr., Jamie Twyman, Wycliffe USA Ltd., Asian Pervious Metals, Inc., Advanced Recovery Systems, Inc. and Venturucs7000, LLC, regarding your subpoenas of their respective bank records from Bank of America and First Priority Bank dated May 1, 2012.

Please consider this my motion to quash the subpoenas pursuant to Section 2204 of the Oklahoma Financial Privacy act on the following grounds:

1. That the financial record sought is incompetent, irrelevant or immaterial for the purpose or purposes for which it is sought considering the fact that nothing in the subpoena or cover letter identifies the purpose of, or the basis for, the ODS investigation;
2. That the release of the financial record would cause an unreasonable burden or hardship under the circumstances again considering the fact that nothing in the subpoena or cover letter identifies the purpose of, or the basis for, the ODS investigation;
3. That the government authority seeking said financial record is attempting to harass the customer considering the fact that nothing in the subpoena or cover letter identifies the purpose of, or the basis for, the ODS investigation; and
4. That there is no merit in the purpose or purposes for which said financial record is sought considering the fact that nothing in the subpoena or cover letter identifies the purpose of, or the basis for, the ODS investigation.

Please contact me regarding the purpose of your investigation so that we can reach an amicable resolution regarding these matters.

Sincerely,

Mickey K. Leslie
