ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST
AND
NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

Pursuant to Section 1-602 of the Oklahoma Uniform Securities Act of 2004 ("Act"), Okla. Stat. tit. 71, §§ 1-101 through 1-701 (2011), the Oklahoma Department of Securities ("Department") commenced an investigation into the activities of Kristin L. Dunning ("Dunning"). Based thereon, the following Findings of Fact, Authorities, and Conclusions of Law are adopted in support of this Order against Dunning.

Findings of Fact

1. Dunning was associated with Edward Jones from April 23, 2001, through August 25, 2005, and April 11, 2007, through March 6, 2015, but has never been registered under the Act or other securities laws. Dunning worked as a non-registered Branch Office Administrator for Edward Jones in offices in and around Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

2. Before her termination from Edward Jones, Dunning admitted to calling third parties and impersonating clients in order to facilitate retirement account rollovers from third parties to Edward Jones, and to signing the name of an agent associated with Edward Jones on client account documentation without the agent's permission. Dunning also knew of dishonest and unethical conduct by the agent but failed to timely report it to Edward Jones.

To the extent any of these Findings of Fact are more properly characterized as Conclusions of Law, they should be so considered.

Authority

Section 1-604 of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

A. If the Administrator determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act or constituting a dishonest or unethical practice or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act or constituting a dishonest or unethical practice, the Administrator may:

1. Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this act;

B. An order under subsection A of this section is effective on the date of issuance. Upon issuance of the order, the Administrator shall promptly serve each person subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been entered. The order must include a statement whether the Administrator will seek a civil penalty or costs of the investigation, a statement of the reasons for the order, and notice that, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a request in a record from the person, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing and the hearing shall be commenced within fifteen (15) days of the matter being set for hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the Administrator, within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order, that may include a civil penalty or costs of the investigation if a civil penalty or costs were sought in the statement accompanying the order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the Administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

C. If a hearing is requested or ordered pursuant to subsection B of this section, a hearing must be held pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act. A final order may not be issued unless the Administrator makes findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act. The final order may make final, vacate, or modify the order issued under subsection A of this section.

D. In a final order under subsection C of this section, the Administrator may impose a civil penalty up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for a single violation or up to Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) for multiple violations in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

E. In a final order, the Administrator may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act.

F. If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with Section 47 of this act [Section 1-609 of this title], the Administrator may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a court of competent jurisdiction. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of the court.

G. If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the Administrator may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court may not require the Administrator to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this section. If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.

Conclusions of Law

1. Dunning has engaged in dishonest and unethical practices in the securities business.

2. The Administrator is authorized under Section 1-604 of the Act to order Dunning to cease and desist from engaging in acts, practices, and/or a course of business constituting dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business.

3. It is in the public interest for the Administrator to order Dunning to cease and desist from engaging in acts, practices, and/or a course of business constituting dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business.

To the extent any of these Conclusions of Law are more properly characterized as Findings of Fact, they should be so considered.

Order

Based on Section 1-604 of the Act and the Findings of Fact, Authority, and Conclusions of Law set forth above, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Dunning cease and desist engaging in acts, practices, and/or a course of business constituting dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business.
