

660:11-7-41. Record keeping requirements [AMENDED]

(a) General requirements. Every investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the Securities Act shall make and keep true, accurate and current the following books and records:

(1) A journal or journals, including cash receipts and disbursements, records, and any other records of original entry forming the basis of entries in any ledger.

(2) General and auxiliary ledgers (or other comparable records) reflecting asset, liability, reserve, capital, income and expense accounts. In no event shall the general ledger be posted less than once a month.

(3) A record of each order given by the investment adviser for the purchase or sale of any security, of any instruction received by the investment adviser from the client concerning the purchase, sale, receipt or delivery of a particular security, and of any modification or cancellation of any such order or instruction. The record shall show the terms and conditions of the order, instruction, modification or cancellation; shall identify the person connected with the investment adviser who recommended the transaction to the client and the person who placed the order; and shall show the account for which entered, the date of entry, and the bank or broker-dealer by or through whom executed where appropriate. Orders entered pursuant to the exercise of discretionary power shall be so designated.

(4) All check books, bank statements, canceled checks and cash reconciliations of the investment adviser.

(5) All bills or statements (or copies thereof), paid or unpaid, relating to the business of the investment adviser as such.

(6) All trial balances, financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and internal audit working papers relating to the business of such investment adviser. The trial balance shall be prepared no later than fifteen (15) business days after the end of the accounting period.

(7) Originals of all written communications received and copies of all written communications sent by the investment adviser relating to the business of the investment adviser, including, but not limited to:

(A) any recommendation made or proposed to be made and any advice given or proposed to be given,

(B) any receipt, disbursement or delivery of funds or securities, or

(C) the placing or execution of any order to purchase or sell any security; provided, however:

(i) that the investment adviser shall not be required to keep any unsolicited market letters and other similar communications of general public distribution not prepared by or for the investment adviser, and

(ii) that if the investment adviser sends any notice, circular or other advertisement offering any report, analysis, publication or other investment advisory service to 2 or more persons, the investment adviser shall not be required to keep a record of the names and addresses of the persons to whom it was sent; except that if the notice, circular or advertisement is distributed to persons named on any list, the investment adviser shall retain with the copy of the notice, circular or advertisement a memorandum describing the list and the source thereof.

(8) A list or other record identifying all accounts in which the investment adviser is vested with any discretionary power with respect to the funds, securities or transactions of any client.

(9) A copy of all powers of attorney and other evidences of the granting of any discretionary authority by any client to the investment adviser.

(10) A copy of all agreements entered into by the investment adviser with any client and all other agreements relating to the business of the investment adviser as such, including agreements which set forth the fees to be charged, the manner of computation and method of payment.

(11) A file containing a copy of each notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin, or other communication, including any communication by electronic media, that the investment adviser circulates or distributes, directly or indirectly, to 2 or more persons (other than persons connected with the investment adviser), and if the notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin, or other communication, including any communication by electronic media, recommends the purchase or sale of a specific security and does not state the reasons for the recommendation, a memorandum of the investment adviser indicating the reasons for the recommendation.

(12) When providing investment advice is the primary business of the investment adviser.

(A) A record of every transaction in a security in which the investment adviser or any advisory representative (as defined in (B) of this paragraph) of the investment adviser has, or by reason of any transaction acquires, any direct or indirect beneficial ownership, except (i) transactions effected in any account over which neither the investment adviser nor the advisory representative of the investment adviser has any direct or indirect influence or control, and (ii) transactions in securities which are direct obligations of the United States. The record shall state the title and amount of the security involved; the date and nature of the transaction (i.e., purchase, sale or other acquisition or disposition); the price at which it was effected; and the name of the broker-dealer or bank with or through whom the transaction was effected. The record may also contain a statement declaring that the reporting or recording of any transaction shall not be construed as an admission that the investment adviser or advisory representative has any direct or indirect beneficial ownership in the security. A transaction shall be recorded no later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar quarter in which the transaction was effected.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the following definitions will apply:

(i) The term "advisory representative" shall mean any partner, officer or director of the investment adviser; any employee who participates in any way in the determination of which recommendations shall be made; any employee who, in connection with his duties, obtains any information concerning which securities are being recommended prior to the effective dissemination of the recommendations; and any of the following persons who obtain information concerning securities recommendations being made by the investment adviser prior to the effective dissemination of the recommendations or of the information concerning the recommendations:

(I) any person in a control relationship to the investment adviser,

(II) any affiliated person of a controlling person, and

(III) any affiliated person of an affiliated person.

(ii) "Control" shall mean the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of a company. Any person who owns beneficially, either directly or through one or more controlled companies, more than 25% of the voting securities of a company shall be presumed to control such company.

(13) When providing investment advice is not the primary business of the investment adviser:

(A) Notwithstanding the provisions of (12) of this subsection, where the investment adviser is primarily engaged in a business or businesses other than advising investment advisory clients, a record must be maintained of every transaction in a security in which the investment adviser or any advisory representative (as defined in (C) of this paragraph) of the investment adviser has, or by reason of any transaction acquires, any direct or indirect beneficial ownership, except:

(i) transactions effected in any account over which neither the investment adviser nor any advisory representative of the investment adviser has any direct or indirect influence or control; and

(ii) transactions in securities which are direct obligations of the United States.

(B) Each record required by (A) of this paragraph shall state the title and amount of the security involved; the date and nature of the transaction (i.e. purchase, sale, or other acquisition or disposition); the price at which it was effected; and the name of the broker-dealer or bank with or through whom the transaction was effected. The record may also contain a statement declaring that the reporting or recording of any transaction shall not be construed as an admission that the investment adviser or advisory representative has any direct or indirect beneficial ownership in the security. A transaction shall be recorded not later than 10 days after the end of the calendar quarter in which the transaction was effected.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the following definitions will apply:

(i) The term “advisory representative”, when used in connection with a company primarily engaged in a business or businesses other than advising investment advisory clients, shall mean any partner, officer, director or employee of the investment adviser who participates in any way in the determination of which recommendations shall be made, or whose functions or duties relate to the determination of which securities are being recommended prior to the effective dissemination of the recommendations; and any of the following persons who obtain information concerning securities recommendations being made by the investment adviser prior to the effective dissemination of such recommendations or of the information concerning the recommendations:

(I) any person in a control relationship to the investment adviser,

(II) any affiliated person of a controlling person, and

(III) any affiliated person of an affiliated person.

(ii) “Control” shall mean the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of a company. Any person who owns beneficially, either directly or through one or more controlled companies, more than 25% of the voting securities of a company shall be presumed to control such company.

(iii) An investment adviser is “primarily engaged in a business or businesses other than advising investment advisory clients” when, for each of its most recent three fiscal years or for the period of time since organization, whichever is lesser, the investment adviser derived from such other business or businesses, on an unconsolidated basis, more than 50% of:

(I) its total sales and revenues, and

(II) its income (or loss) before income taxes and extraordinary items.

(14) A copy of each written statement and each amendment or revision, given or sent to any client or prospective client of the investment adviser, and a record of the dates that each written statement, and each amendment or revision, was given, or offered to be given, to any client or prospective client who subsequently becomes a client.

(15) For each client that was obtained by the adviser by means of a solicitor to whom a cash fee was paid by the adviser:

(A) evidence of a written agreement to which the adviser is a party related to the payment of such fee;

(B) a signed and dated acknowledgment of receipt from the client evidencing the client’s receipt of the investment adviser’s disclosure statement and a written disclosure statement of the solicitor; and

(C) a copy of the solicitor’s written disclosure statement.

(16) All accounts, books, internal working papers, and any other records or documents that are necessary to form the basis for or demonstrate the calculation of the performance or rate of return of all managed accounts or securities recommendations in any notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin, or other communication including but not limited to electronic media that the investment adviser circulates or distributes, directly or indirectly, to two or more persons (other than persons connected with the investment adviser); provided, however, that, with respect to the performance of managed accounts, the retention of all account statements, if they reflect all debits, credits, and other transactions in a client's account for the period of the statement, and all worksheets necessary to demonstrate the calculation of the performance or rate of return of all managed accounts shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph.

(17) A file containing a copy of all written communications received or sent regarding any litigation involving the investment adviser or any investment adviser representative or employee, and regarding any written customer or client complaint.

(18) Recommendations.

(A) Written information about each investment advisory client that is the basis for making any recommendation or providing any investment advice to such client.

(B) A record evidencing that the account record of each client consisting of the information described in (A) of this paragraph has been furnished by the investment adviser to the client within thirty days of the signing of an investment advisory contract, and thereafter at intervals no greater than thirty-six months. The account record shall include or be accompanied by prominent statements that the client should mark any corrections and return the account record to the adviser and that the client should notify the advisor of any changes to information contained in the account record as they occur in the future.

(19) Written procedures to supervise the activities of employees and investment adviser representatives that are reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations. The following standards shall apply to supervisory procedures:

(A) Regardless of its size or complexity, every investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the Securities Act must adopt and implement supervisory procedures that are tailored specifically to their business and must address the activities of all its investment adviser representatives and associated persons. Supervisory procedures must be in writing and must be reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and the rules of the Oklahoma Department of Securities. Ultimate responsibility for supervision rests with the investment adviser.

(B) Written supervisory procedures must identify who has supervisory responsibilities, a record of each associated person who has supervisory responsibilities and the date assigned, and procedures for each business line and applicable securities laws for which each supervisor is responsible.

(C) All written supervisory procedures should specifically identify the individual to perform a supervisory function; what specifically the supervisor will review; when or how often the review will take place and how the supervisor's review will be documented.

(D) Every investment adviser must maintain a copy of each prior version of its written supervisory procedures for a minimum of five years.

(20) A file containing a copy of each document (other than any notices of general dissemination) that was filed with or received from any state or federal agency or self regulatory organization and that pertains to the registrant or its investment adviser representatives, which file should contain, but is not limited to, all applications, amendments, renewal filings, and correspondence.

(21) Copies, with original signatures of the investment adviser's appropriate signatory and the investment adviser representative, of each initial Form U-4 and each amendment to Disclosure Reporting Pages (DRPs U-4) must be retained by the investment adviser (filing on behalf of the investment adviser representative) and must be made available for inspection upon regulatory request.

(22) Where the adviser inadvertently held or obtained a client's securities or funds and returned them to the client within three business days or has forwarded third party checks within 24 hours the adviser will be considered as not having custody but shall keep a ledger or other listing of all securities or funds held or obtained relating to the inadvertent custody disclosing the following information:

(A) issuer;

(B) type of security and series;

- _____ (C) date of issue;
- _____ (D) for debt instruments, the denomination, interest rate and maturity date;
- _____ (E) certificate number, including alphabetical prefix or suffix;
- _____ (F) name in which registered;
- _____ (G) date given to the adviser;
- _____ (H) date sent to client or sender;
- _____ (I) form of delivery to client or sender, or copy of the form of delivery to client or sender; and
- _____ (J) mail confirmation number, if applicable, or confirmation by client or sender of the fund's or security's return.

(23) If an investment adviser obtains possession of securities that are acquired from the issuer in a transaction or chain of transactions not involving any public offering that comply with the exception from custody in (c)(2) of 660:11-7-48, the adviser shall keep the following records:

- (A) a record showing the issuer or current transfer agent's name, address, phone number and other applicable contact information pertaining to the party responsible for recording client interests in the securities; and
- (B) a copy of any legend, shareholder agreement or other agreement showing that those securities are transferable only with prior consent of the issuer or holders of the outstanding securities of the issuer.

(b) Special requirements due to type of custody.

(1) Custody as defined in 660:11-7-48. If an investment adviser has custody, as that term is defined in 660:11-7-48, the records required to be made and kept under (a) of this Section shall include:

- (A) a copy of any and all documents executed by the client (including a limited power of attorney) under which the adviser is authorized or permitted to withdraw a client's funds or securities maintained with a custodian upon the adviser's instruction to the custodian.
- (B) a journal or other record showing all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities (including certificate numbers) for all accounts and all other debits and credits to the accounts.
- (C) a separate ledger account for each client showing all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities, the date and price of each purchase and sale, and all debits and credits.

_____ (D) copies of confirmations of all transactions effected by or for the account of any client.

(E) a record for each security in which any client has a position, which record shall show the name of each client having any interest in each security, the amount or interest of each client, and the location of each security.

(F) a copy of each of the client's quarterly account statements, as generated and delivered by the qualified custodian. If the adviser also generates a statement that is delivered to the client, the adviser shall also maintain copies of such statements along with the date such statements were sent to the clients.

(G) if applicable to the adviser's situation, a copy of the special examination report verifying the completion of the examination by an independent certified public accountant and describing the nature and extent of the examination.

(H) a record of any finding by the independent certified public accountant of any material discrepancies found during the examination.

_____ (I) if applicable, evidence of the client's designation of an independent representative.

(2) Adviser to pooled investment vehicle. If an investment adviser has custody because it advises a pooled investment vehicle, the adviser shall also keep the following records:

_____ (A) true, accurate and current account statements;

(B) When the exception set forth in (c)(3) of 660:11-7-48 applies, the records required to be made and kept shall include:

_____ (i) the date(s) of the audit;

_____ (ii) a copy of the audited financial statements; and

- (iii) evidence of the mailing of the audited financial to all limited partners, members or other beneficial owners within 120 days of the end of its fiscal year.
- (C) When the description set forth in (b)(7) of 660:11-7-48 applies to an investment adviser, the investment adviser is required to make and keep records to include:
- (i) a copy of the written agreement with the independent party reviewing all fees and expenses, indicating the responsibilities of the independent third party.
 - (ii) copies of all invoices and receipts showing approval by the independent party for payment through the qualified custodian.
- (3) Trustee. If an investment adviser has custody because it is acting as the trustee for a beneficial trust as described in (c)(5) of 660:11-7-48 the investment adviser shall also keep the following records until the account is closed or the adviser is no longer acting as trustee:
- (A) a copy of the written statement given to each beneficial owner setting forth a description of the requirements of (b) of 660:11-7-48 and the reason why the adviser will not be complying with those requirements; and
 - (B) a written acknowledgement signed and dated by each beneficial owner, and evidencing receipt of the statement required under (A) of this paragraph.
- (c) Managed accounts. Every investment adviser subject to (b) of this Section who renders any investment supervisory or management service to any client shall, with respect to the portfolio being supervised or managed and to the extent that the information is reasonably available to or obtainable by the investment adviser, make and keep true, accurate and current:
- ___(1) Records showing separately for each client the securities purchased and sold, and the date, amount and price of each purchase and sale.
 - (2) For each security in which any client has a current position, information from which the investment adviser can promptly furnish the name of each security held by the client, and the current amount or interest of the client.
- (d) Client identity. Any books or records required by this Section may be maintained by the investment adviser in such manner that the identity of any client to whom the investment adviser renders investment supervisory services is indicated by numerical or alphabetical code or some similar designation.
- (e) Records retention. Every investment adviser subject to (a) of this Section shall preserve the following records in the manner prescribed:
- (1) All books and records required to be made under the provisions of (a) to (c)(1), inclusive, of this Section (except for books and records required to be made under the provisions of (a)(11) and (a)(16) of this Section), shall be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on record, the first two years in the principal office of the investment adviser.
 - (2) Partnership articles and any amendments, articles of incorporation, charters, minute books, and stock certificate books of the investment adviser and of any predecessor, shall be maintained in the principal office of the investment adviser and preserved until at least three years after termination of the enterprise.
 - (3) Books and records required to be made under the provisions of (a)(11) and (a)(16) of this Section shall be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years, the first two years in the principal office of the investment adviser, from the end of the fiscal year during which the investment adviser last published or otherwise disseminated, directly or indirectly, the notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin, or other communication including by electronic media.
 - (4) Books and records required to be made under the provisions of (a)(17)-(22), inclusive, of this Section shall be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in the principal office of the investment adviser, or for the time period during which the investment adviser was registered or required to be registered in the state, if less.

(5) Notwithstanding other record preservation requirements of this Section, the following records or copies shall be required to be maintained at the business location of the investment adviser from which the customer or client is being provided or has been provided with investment advisory services: (A) records required to be preserved under (a)(3),(a)(7)-(10), (a)(14)-(15), (a)(17)-(19), (b) and (c) inclusive, of this Section, and (B) the records or copies required under the provision of (a)(11) and (a)(16) of this Section which records or related records identify the name of the investment adviser representative providing investment advice from that business location, or which identify the business locations' physical address, mailing address, electronic mailing address, or telephone number. The records will be maintained for the applicable period described in this Subsection.

(f) Ceasing business. An investment adviser subject to (a) of this Section, before ceasing to conduct or discontinuing business as an investment adviser shall arrange for and be responsible for the preservation of the books and records required to be maintained and preserved under this Section for the remainder of the period specified in this Section, and shall notify the Administrator in writing of the exact address where the books and records will be maintained during the period.

(g) Format and storage of records.

(1) The records required to be maintained and preserved may be immediately produced or reproduced, and maintained and preserved for the required time, by an investment adviser on:

- _____ (A) paper or hard copy form, as those records are kept in their original form; or
- _____ (B) micrographic media, including microfilm, microfiche, or any similar medium; or
- _____ (C) electronic storage media, including any digital storage medium or system that meets the terms of this section.

_____ (2) The investment adviser must:

(A) arrange and index the records in a way that permits easy location, access, and retrieval of any particular record;

(B) provide promptly any of the following that the Administrator or his representatives may request:

- _____ (i) a legible, true, and complete copy of the record in the medium and format in which it is stored;
- _____ (ii) a legible, true, and complete printout of the record; and
- _____ (iii) means to access, view, and print the records; and

(C) separately store, for the time required for preservation of the original record, a duplicate copy of the record on any medium allowed by this section.

(3) In the case of records created or maintained on electronic storage media, the investment adviser must establish and maintain procedures:

(A) to maintain and preserve the records, so as to reasonably safeguard them from loss, alteration, or destruction;

(B) to limit access to the records to properly authorized personnel and the Administrator and his representatives; and

(C) to reasonably ensure that any reproduction of a non-electronic original record on electronic storage media is complete, true, and legible when retrieved.

(h) Investment supervisory services. For purposes of this Section, "investment supervisory services" means the giving of continuous advice as to the investment of funds on the basis of the individual needs of each client; and "discretionary power" shall not include discretion as to the price at which or the time when a transaction is or is to be effected, if, before the order is given by the investment adviser, the client has directed or approved the purchase or sale of a definite amount of the particular security.

(i) Compliance with federal law. Any book or other record made, kept, maintained and preserved in compliance with Rules 17a-3 [17 C.F.R. 240.17a-3] and 17a-4 [17 C.F.R. 240.17a-4] under the ~~Securities Exchange Act of 1934~~ Act, which is substantially the same as the book or other record required to be made, kept, maintained and preserved under this Section, shall be deemed to be made, kept, maintained and preserved in compliance with this Section.

(j) Compliance with other state requirements. Every investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the Securities Act that has its principal place of business in a state other than Oklahoma shall be exempt from the requirements of this section, provided the investment adviser is licensed in the state in which it maintains its principal place of business and is in compliance with that state's books and records requirements.
